

DINI Foundation Presents “The Hot & Tasty (Disabled?) Cookbook” Filmed Live At Procam Chicago To Raise Awareness For Its Mission

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Chicago/Aurora, IL – The DINI Foundation (“Disability Is Not Inability”), a 501(c)(3) organization dedicated to increasing visibility and opportunities for those with disabilities, is thrilled to announce a live filmed presentation of “The Hot & Tasty (Disabled?) Cookbook” Thursday, December 19th from 5 -7PM at Procam Aurora. Aurora is just west of Chicago.

The brainchild of Lisa Cesal - a disabled author, advocate and consultant - and The Rock & Roll Chef® - a professional chef and musician - the video cookbook is educational, entertaining and unique.

The cookbook is targeted towards those with disabilities and their caretakers, two groups of people who may not be physically able to cook, or have limited culinary skills.

DIFFERENT & UNIQUE. Unlike other non-profits, DINI Foundation has adopted an approach of creating unique, positive events and merchandise to attract sponsors and partners, and advance its mission.

LIVE SHOW AVAILABILITY. Live performances of “The Hot & Tasty (Disabled?) Cookbook” are available nationally for fundraisers, events, festivals and more. For more information contact@hotntastycookbook.com
